WILLIAMSBURG, VIRGINIA • June 12-14, 2008

A visit to restored Colonial Williamsburg is a step back in time to a thriving 18th century community. This historic area covers more than 173 acres. Colonial Williamsburg is a bustling community of homes, shops, taverns and exhibition buildings along with a hundred gardens and greens. The historic area interprets the life and excitement of Colonial Virginia. Williamsburg is a very special destination especially for young families, who will learn about the prominent role Williamsburg played in the Revolutionary War. Also close by is Busch Gardens - voted the World's favorite theme park for the 15th consecutive year, Water Country USA, Jamestown, Yorktown and Virginia Winery. Our group rate is $159 double at the charming Williamsburg Hospitality House, which is within easy walking distance to Historic Williamsburg. Rates include a full buffet breakfast for two.
